

Success of the Trine University PA Program Meeting its Learning Outcomes/Goals

The program will annually assess its success in meeting its learning outcomes/goals as reflected in the Program Outcomes that follow. This will be posted as data becomes available.

Provide an educational experience that supports effective professional communication and interprofessional collaborative practice.

- List of FWAPEEC activities will be posted as data becomes available

Provide an educational experience that fosters lifelong learning, service to the profession, leadership, scholarship, and community service.

- Scholarly activities of faculty members
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Scholarly activities of students
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Service to the profession and leadership activities of faculty
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Service to the profession and leadership activities of students
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Percentage of student that are members of AAPA
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Registration status of Trine University Student Society (SAAAPA)
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Clinical practice activities of faculty
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Community service of faculty
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.
- Community service of students
 - This will be posted as data becomes available.

Provide an educational experience that affords students the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and experiences needed for successfully passing the Physician Assistant National Certification Exam (PANCE).

- Trended PANCE first time pass rates will be posted as data becomes available

Produce entry-level physician assistant graduates who are able to make positive impacts on the healthcare needs of communities by providing competent medical care in a variety of clinical settings.

- Employment settings from Exit Survey data will be posted as data becomes available
- Employment settings from Alumni Survey will be posted as data becomes available

Advance the physician assistant profession through service, leadership, clinical practice, and scholarship.

- % employed as PA at six months post-graduation (Exit Survey/6 months follow up audit) will be posted as data becomes available
- Results from Alumni Survey on service, leadership, and scholarship items will be posted as data becomes available

Demonstrate a commitment to the physician assistant profession by facilitating collaborative activities for continuous professional growth.

- Related events sponsored by Trine will be posted as data becomes available